AudioControl Awards Rep of the Year Award, Home Audio Products

Seattle, WA, March 13th, 2017 – AudioControl® (audiocontrol.com), designers and manufacturers of innovative high-performance audio solutions for the residential, commercial and automotive markets has awarded Rich Jackson as Rep of the Year, home audio products. The Rep of the Year award recognizes the independent sales organization that has delivered outstanding overall performance, dedication to the AudioControl brand and exceptional service provided consistently to dealers throughout the region.

Rich Jackson started his company in January, 2010 and has been servicing Northern California, Northern Nevada and Hawaii, leveraging his industry experience and expertise to bring premium brands to top dealers, integrators and residential system specifiers throughout the region. “It has been the mission of my company to always provide outstanding solutions along with the finest level of service to dealers in my territory,” Jackson stated. “AudioControl has delivered the most meaningful lineup of integration-friendly amplifiers and home theater products—I give Alex and his team a tremendous amount of credit for the overall success and growth of the AudioControl brand.”

“Rich has demonstrated success with the AudioControl brand by being proactive—offering creative ideas and high-level support to his network of dealers,” explained Chris Kane, Vice President of Sales and Marketing at AudioControl. “We appreciate that Rich is an evangelist for AudioControl throughout his territory and his feedback from the field has helped our brand remain at the forefront of emerging trends in the marketplace.”
