SAVANT® EMBARKS ON LARGEST INTEGRATOR SUMMIT IN COMPANY HISTORY

CEO Robert Madonna to unveil new product roadmap featuring significant innovations for the luxury residential market

HYANNIS, MASS. — January 24th, 2017 — Savant, a leader in smart home technology, will be hosting the largest gathering of integration professionals in the ten-plus year history of the company. With more than a decade of experience in premium home automation, Savant powers some of the world's most luxurious environments. The event is slated for Denver, CO in late January, 2017. Savant CEO and founder Robert Madonna, who recently retook the reigns of the company, will present the keynote address and share a revitalized product roadmap that reinforces the brand's commitment to the integration specialist.

With Madonna pushing innovation across all market segments, Savant will be sharing their vision for future products and services geared toward integration professionals. These new solutions will serve the luxury residential market as well as the growing segment of DIFM (do-it-for-me) installers whose customers want premium, scalable control solutions at an affordable point of entry. Some examples of the groundbreaking advances to be unveiled at the summit include Ultra HD video over IP featuring the highest resolution switch on the market as well as vastly new and exciting interpretations of the touch screen for an array of applications. Further development and application of voice control technology, climate and lighting control solutions will also be unveiled at the summit.

Service and support will be addressed as well, leveraging the Savant cloud and an enhanced capability for integrators to monitor, diagnose and upgrade existing platforms without the expense of rolling a truck and technicians into the field. These capabilities, originally developed by Savant for enterprise clients, create valuable opportunities for integrators while simultaneously giving users the most seamless experience possible.
