AudioControl to Host Mobile Audio Roundtables at the 2020 SEMA360

Attendees will learn about best-in-class mobile audio solutions that create new opportunities available only to AudioControl dealers

Seattle, WA, November 2nd, 2020 – AudioControl (audiocontrol.com) has announced that they will be participating in SEMA’s virtual tradeshow experience, called SEMA360, taking place Nov. 2nd — 6th, 2020. SEMA360 will enable exhibitors like AudioControl to foster new relationships with attendees and press, provide critical training seminars and create an opportunity to network within the automotive aftermarket community.

AudioControl SEMA360 Roundtables

AudioControl invites SEMA360 attendees to join Chris Bennett and Matthew Palumbo as they host SEMA360 Roundtables to discuss new products, innovations and groundbreaking OE integration solutions. AudioControl has several new products engineered to empower dealers on the OE integration front, paving the way to new customers and increased profits. Chris and Matthew will also be covering AudioControl’s outstanding lineup of high performance amplifiers, including ultra-durable solutions for Marine, Powersports and more. AudioControl mobile audio solutions deliver the performance, features, outstanding build quality and warranty that help dealers achieve success and exceed the expectations of today’s most discerning consumers.
