AudioControl Names 2020 Rep of the Year Award, Mobile Products

Seattle, WA, February, 23rd, 2021 – AudioControl® (audiocontrol.com) has named Dynamic Sales & Marketing of New Port Richey, Florida their 2020 Rep of the Year for Mobile Products. Dynamic Sales & Marketing was founded in 2002, and covers the state of Florida with a team of three, including Principal John Schneid covering the Western portion of the state, JC Iglesias covering the Southeast region and Bruno Maffucci covering Orlando and North-Central Florida.

Dynamic Sales & Marketing has always been highly selective about working with the finest manufacturer partners that deliver the best products and services to dealers in their territory. “My team and I are very grateful to have been recognized with this award by a respected vendor such as AudioControl,” explained Schneid. “Our success in 2020 can largely be attributed to hard work and our commitment to be knowledgeable sales consultants for the brands we represent in a rapidly changing industry. AudioControl delivers outstanding products that both provide superior performance, key features that the dealers must have as well as exceptional customer service. They are great people who are passionate about their brand—and the dealers love working with them.”

“I want to congratulate John and his team for doing an exceptional job representing the AudioControl brand through what has been a very challenging year,” explained Chris Bennett, Director of Mobile Audio for AudioControl. “The Dynamic Sales & Marketing team has made every effort to understand the products and services we offer and partner with the finest 12-volt specialists throughout the state of Florida to achieve success. We look forward to another excellent year working together in 2021.”
