

WAVE Electronics Expands Portfolio with CYNCTM Smart Home Family from GE Lighting, a Savant company

Top independent US distributor among first to bring next level smart home to dealers, builders and contractors

Hyannis, Mass. – September 20th, 2021 – WAVE Electronics and Savant Systems, Inc. are partnering to deliver CYNCTM smart home solutions to custom installation professionals, builders and contractors at WAVE locations nationwide and through wave-electronics.com.

“WAVE Electronics is a key strategic partner with a shared vision to offer exceptional whole-home experiences without compromise,” said Angela Larson, Senior Vice President of Customer Operations at Savant. “The addition of CYNCTM into the Savant portfolio of smart home solutions now available at WAVE is just one example of the value we’re bringing to market as a result of the GE Lighting acquisition.”

CYNCTM products, developed by GE Lighting, a Savant company, offer homeowners a personalized, connected experience that delivers exceptional convenience, safety, security and comfort.

CYNCTM is a smart choice for integrators and contractors who are looking to grow their business with builder partners. CYNCTM whole-home solutions include indoor and outdoor smart lamps, three and four-wire smart dimmers and switches, motion detectors, indoor and outdoor smart plugs, smart light strips and an indoor camera, with myriad new product additions to be announced in the coming months.

The entire CYNCTM smart home family of products is controlled by the CYNCTM App, powered by Savant, available in both iOS and Android stores. Inspired by Savant’s award-winning user experiences, the App delivers seamless control throughout the home and includes Savant’s patented Truelmage™ technology and unique personalization features.
