HYANNIS, MASS. July 9th, 2024 — Savant®, a leader in smart home and smart power technology, has announced the addition of KLUŚ as a Recommended Partner. As part of this strategic partnership, the KLUŚ comprehensive line of linear lighting solutions for indoor and outdoor applications will now be available through the Savant store.

“KLUŚ’ best-in-class LED Lighting Extrusions and LED Strips are perfectly designed for demanding applications, providing even illumination with a contemporary, minimalist design,” explained George Katsiris, VP of the Recommended Partners Program. “The superior diffusion, durability and refined aesthetics make KLUŚ a perfect addition to Savant’s growing lighting platform, which includes USAI Lighting as well as all-new GE Smart Lighting undercabinet and retrofit downlight solutions.”

KLUŚ offers premium linear LED lighting solutions accompanied by carefully crafted extrusions and mounting accessories for a vast array of residential and commercial applications including kitchen and dining, entertainment spaces, wine cellars, coves, and stairways, plus outdoor architectural lighting and waterproof fixtures for floors, driveways, garages, and more. KLUŚ fixtures are available in RGB and RGB+W to accommodate the color requirements of any project and integrate seamlessly with the Savant app.

“We are excited to partner with Savant, bringing KLUŚ lighting solutions to their wide network of integrators,” said Jeff Niedermaier, Director of Sales and Marketing. “This partnership provides Savant integrators with KLUŚ LED lighting solutions that inspire creativity and add value to the overall lighting design.”
