

SAVANT Adds Modern Forms Fans by WAC to Recommended Partner Program

New offering creates additional opportunities for integrators by expanding the availability of premium lighting and comfort solutions as part of the Savant experience.

HYANNIS, MASS. June 2nd, 2025 — Savant®, a leader in smart home and smart power technology, announced the addition of Modern Forms Fans by WAC as a Recommended Partner, creating a valuable opportunity for integrators offering best-in-class smart home solutions to their clients.

“The availability of Modern Forms Fans provides integrators with access to award-winning solutions designed for modern living, all inside the Savant Store, plus our streamlined one-stop shopping experience including the full benefit of Savant’s integrator programs,” explained Greg Barrett, Director of Product Management: Professional Lighting at Savant. “We are confident that Modern Forms Fans will be an exceptional addition to the audio/video, shading, lighting, and other solutions that integrators must have to deliver the ultimate smart home experience to their clients.”

Six families of Modern Forms Fans are now available to order from the Savant Store, including Aura, Aviator, Axis, Skylark, Wynd and Zephyr. Each fan can be controlled directly within the Savant ecosystem via Savant Profiles, or independently through the Modern Forms app, delivering smart functionality and contemporary aesthetics to suit any space. Integrators will appreciate the ability to offer superior fans that provide the features, style, and energy efficiency to exceed their clients’ expectations.

“WAC is excited to collaborate with Savant, providing their extensive dealer network with access to premium Modern Forms smart fans suitable for every project,” stated Patrick Laidlaw, Director of Business Development, Integration. “With access to six lines of exceptional indoor and outdoor fans, integrators will have the ability to make the entire home beautiful and controllable within Savant’s smart home ecosystem.”
